Dayton Right to Life Foundation

a tax deductible 501(c)(3) organization, provides an array of services for mothers and families in crisis pregnancy situations, including various community events, clothing, diapers and related articles for infants, and limited scholarship opportunities.
Stork's Nest Baby Pantry
We help young mothers and other clients with baby clothes, diapers, formula, baby food, and more!

Mobile Baby Pantry
Our Flying Stork’s Nest Baby Pantry is available to clients on the last Saturday of the month offsite at 2 area churches. The Mobile Baby Pantries provide diapers, formula, baby supplies, and clothes.

Community Baby Showers
We partner with area organizations to host baby showers for pregnant moms.

Elizabeth Yox Scholarship
Each year we offer college scholarships to young parents residing in the Miami Valley area who have experienced an untimely pregnancy and have chosen life for his or her child.

Cemetery of the Innocents
The Cemetery of Innocents is a display of crosses that represents the number of abortions since Roe vs. Wade with the goal to encourage and educate the community to pray for the victims of abortions and many others affected by these tragic “choices.”

End of Life Seminars
Dayton Right to Life offers end of life seminars for civic groups and churches, as well as educational seminars on assisted suicide, euthanasia, and basic Church teaching on end of life topics.
